TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND ORDER SETTING HEARING FOR TEMPORARY ORDERS

The application of Petitioner, Michael Long, for temporary restraining orders was presented to the Court today. The children the subject of this suit are Sophie Alese Long, Jack Levi Long, and Lucas Aries Long. Respondent is Kelly Long.

The Court examined the pleadings and affidavit of Petitioner and finds that Petitioner is entitled to a temporary restraining order.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the clerk of this Court issue a temporary restraining order restraining Respondent, and Respondent is immediately restrained, from:

Disturbing the peace of the children or of another party.

Withdrawing the children from enrollment in the school or day-care facility where the children are presently enrolled.

Hiding or secreting the children from Petitioner.

Making disparaging remarks regarding Petitioner or Petitioner's family in the presence or within the hearing of the children.

Discussing any litigation concerning the children in the presence or within the hearing of the children.

Canceling, altering, failing to renew or pay premiums on, or in any manner affecting the level of coverage that existed at the time this suit was filed of, any health or dental insurance policy insuring the children.

The Court further finds that, effective immediately, for the safety and welfare of the child, it is necessary and equitable for the Court to grant Michael Long's request for extraordinary relief and enter the following Order until a hearing can be had on Michael Long's request for injunctive relief.

IT IS ORDERED that, effective immediately, the following orders shall issue for the safety and welfare of the child:

Kelly Long is excluded from possession of or access to the children, Sophie Alese Long, Jack Levi Long, and Lucas Aries Long.

This restraining order is effective immediately and shall continue in force and effect until further order of this Court or until it expires by operation of law. This order shall be binding on Respondent; on Respondent's agents, servants, and employees; and on those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this order by personal service or otherwise. The requirement of a bond is waived.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk shall issue notice to Respondent, Kelly Long, to appear, and Respondent is ORDERED to appear in person, or via zoom and to furnish information sufficient to accurately identify Respondent's net resources and ability to pay child support and to bring with her tax returns for the past two years, a financial statement substantially in the form and detail prescribed by the Texas Family Law Practice Manual (3d ed.), form 4-2, and pay stubs for the past three months. IT IS ORDERED that Respondent shall appear with those documents before this Court via Zoom Hearing at https://txcourts.zoom.us/u/adobP6u0Lx, Meeting ID 956 0719 7456, on August 12, 2020 at 9:00 A. M. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether, while this case is pending:

The preceding temporary restraining order should be made a temporary injunction pending final hearing.

The additional temporary injunction prayed for should be granted.

Petitioner and Respondent should be appointed temporary joint managing conservators of the children and Petitioner should be designated as the conservator who has the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the children.

Respondent should be ordered to provide support for the children, including the payment of child support and medical and dental support in the manner specified by the Court, while this case is pending.

The Court should order reasonable periods of electronic communication between the children and Petitioner to supplement Petitioner's periods of possession of the children.

Petitioner should be awarded the exclusive right to enroll the children in school.

Respondent should be denied access to the children or, alternatively, the Court should render a possession order providing that Respondent's periods of visitation be continuously supervised.

The Court should order Respondent to execute all necessary releases required by Petitioner to obtain any discovery allowed by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

The Court should order Respondent to execute all necessary releases pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and 45 C.F.R. section 164.508 to permit Petitioner to obtain health-care information regarding the children.

The Court should order Respondent to execute for all health-care providers of the children an authorization for disclosure of protected health information to Petitioner pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and 45 C.F.R. section 164.508.

The Court should order Respondent to designate Petitioner as a person to whom protected health information regarding the children may be disclosed whenever Respondent executes an authorization for disclosure of protected health information pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and 45 C.F.R. section 164.508.

The Court should make all other and further orders that are pleaded for or that are deemed necessary for the safety and welfare of the children.
